

“Government will support the training and recruiting of mentors; yet it is the men and women of America who will fill the need. One mentor, one person can change a life forever. And I urge you to be that one person.”

—President, United States of America, 2003 State of the Union Address

“Giving kids a world of choices is not the same as getting them to see a world of possibilities.” —Rauhmel Fox

“Students, constrained by narrow visions of their own potential and choices, are encouraged by a national network of Appointed Mentor Practitioners™ trained by WHOmentors.com, Inc. to see in the people around them—in the literature they read, in the courses they study—aspects of the human experience which present possibilities and appropriate, relevant models for them to be stimulated and incredibly inspired.”
